

What IS NYSUT's Member Organizing Institute?

The NYSUT Member Organizing Institute is designed to support our member engagement efforts through one-on-one conversations with members. This program is great for NYSUT members who want to strengthen their organizing and leadership skills. It is also a fun way to make some extra cash over the summer!

MOI 2025 Training 2026: June 29-July 1/Albany, NY

Scan to Apply:

NYSUT MOI capitalizes on one of our most valuable resources—our members—to help build union power and activism. The ability to draw from personal work and union experience to engage and activate members is invaluable. During NYSUT MOI, union members are trained to work as part-time organizers to help increase capacity within our state and local unions.

Apply Today! The deadline for applying to NYSUT Member Organizing Institute is March 31, 2026.

Program Requirements:

Successful applicants should feel comfortable having one-to-one conversations with members of NYSUT at their homes (the work you do will be in the region where you live or work).

Compensation:

Members accepted to participate in the NYSUT Member Organizing Institute will receive $25 an hour as well as reimbursement for mileage and tolls.

Questions:

For further information, please contact
Ada Martinez: Ada.Martinez@nysut.org

Participants will be expected to:

- Complete 6 to 12 shifts (4 hours each) over the 6 week duration of the program.
- Attend 1 of 4 multi-day training sessions (hotel & meals provided, mileage to & from training is reimbursed)
- Accept observation and constructive feedback from NYSUT Organizers.
- Be comfortable with basic navigation of a smartphone.
- Be on their feet walking for most of their shift, including in inclement weather and after dark. Driving between houses may be required as well.
- Leverage technology for efficiency and competitive advantage.